A fund in Grossmont Hospital's Memory Lane in the name of Jim Spears was approved Tuesday by the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce. Spears, a director and former vice president of the chamber, died last week.

The announcement of the fund was made by president Sam Pernicano who invited Spears' acquaintances to participate in the fund, if they wish, by contacting him.

The directors, at their regular monthly meeting, were hosts to

Hughes Appointed College District Superintendent

After deferring action twice on a recommendation by Lewis Smith, the Grossmont Junior College District Board named Harold Hughes superintendent of the college district August 27.

Hughes, former associate superintendent of the college district, will continue as head of the business administration, financial and building programs of the expanding junior college district at one dollar more a year. Hughes also is associate superintendent of the Grossmont High School District for which he is paid $17,000 a year.

Lewis Smith, superintendent of the high school district and former superintendent of the junior college district, first recommended that Hughes be made superintendent of the junior college district July 2.

In his report to the Board of Trustees, Smith noted a duplication in his duties to the junior college district, with those of former associate superintendent Hughes.

Trustees appointed Hughes superintendent of the Grossmont Junior College District after an administrative investigation showing added proficiency with Hughes in complete charge of the college district.

Produce Stands Reborn in S.D. County

The issue was joined several weeks ago — before we viewed dimly the sorry state of affairs leading to the passing of roadside fruit and vegetable stands.

We were disturbed because we like peanut-stand peanuts and the law says they can't be sold from roadside stands or, for that matter, a peanut pushcart.

No one may operate an open roadside stand unless it is restricted to the sale of produce raised on its own land, and it must not be processed in any way. Fruit must be in an enclosed building.

Two farmers from the east county who had been operating stands for about 20 years complained that the health department restrictions have cut sales 35 per cent this year.

One farmer turned to roadside operation after a big chain started buying out the independent markets in his area, thereby removing the main market for his products.

Dr. Askew, who must enforce the ordinances enacted by the county supervisors, wants all food-selling places to be handled alike. He wants the law to be enforced equally in town and in country.

Opponents of relaxing the ordinance include the Tavern and Restaurant Owners Assn. and the Retail Grocers Assn. Relaxation of the law would take sales from them. The grocers claim it would lead to the return of the itinerant fruit peddler. Dr. Askew says that a relaxation of the law would allow downtown markets to display their wares on the sidewalks.

Sup. Bob Cozens wants flexibility in the law so that the small operator can compete with the downtown boys and the big, chain markets.

There may be valid reasons for not relaxing the ordinance but we often feel that the smaller the business, the more laws are enacted against him.

Then, this week, like a fresh breath of country air, came a modification. It is a small victory for the farmer boys, but a victory none the less.

Beginning now, farmers and ranchers "may display and sell home grown produce from an open stand on the property where they are grown, provided such open stand is maintained in a clean and sanitary manner."

Bible Reading Law Is in State Constitution

What does the United States Supreme Court decision on Bible reading and reciting the Lord's Prayer in public schools mean in California?

The answer: "Absolutely nothing," according to the Education News Service of California.

Jr. College Grading Completed Below Cost

Rough grading at the Grossmont College campus in Fletcher Hills was completed at a cost of approximately $169,000 less than the original estimate.

The college board of trustees, meeting this week, accepted a report on the grading work done by A. A. Baxter Corp. The company's successful bid had been $340,673, but only $333,206 was actually spent on the work because less topsoil had to be imported than had been foreseen.

The board heard a tribute to the firm of Koebig and Koebig, project engineers, which came within one-half of one per cent of estimating correctly the amount of dirt that was moved at the campus site. The engineers guessed 1,060,000 cubic yards; the Baxter firm moved 1,065,000 cubic yards.

M. J. Shelton, reporting for Koebig and Koebig, complimented the Baxter Corporation on a "thorough, precise job" of grading.

Montroy, J. Dail Meet in Eyeball-to-Eyeball Clash

Pandemonium reigned for a while at the Lemon Grove Men's Club Friday when the speaker and the presiding officer clashed.

The speaker, Monty Montroy, a chronic critic of San Diego's Mayor Charles Dail and San Diego city politics, aroused the president pro-tem, John Dail, who is Mayor Dail's brother.

The clash came after Montroy claimed the Grand Jury "white-washed Mayor Dail in 20 minutes" after Montroy had offered evidence that the Mayor had a conflict of interests when he attempted to get Brown Field for the city's jet-age airport.

In the heated exchange that followed, Montroy said he did not claim that the Dail family actually owned property adjacent to Brown Field. John Dail said his brother was an officer in a corporation which owned a building in the general Brown field area and that the Grand Jury quickly reported that no conflict of interest existed.

Before the conflict, which brought a shouting, eyeball-to-eyeball confrontation in which the hazard of fisticuffs showed through, Montroy made other charges which would have raised the hackles of other officials and politicians, had they been present.

Montroy charged:

• That City officials had looted San Diego's capital fund of $1½ million to get Center City going at the expense of the city's road program;

• That the Metro sewer system, which was sold to the people as an $8 million project, had cost $60 million so far with $57 million more needed to complete it;

• That the sewer system is costing taxpayers $2,700 a day because of the poor judgment of a former city manager; (He later identified him as George Bean).

• That City Councilman Frank Curran and Ivor deKirby had plans to foist urban renewal on San Diego. He described urban renewal as "confiscation of private property and turning it over to developers at the expense of the original owners."

He also charged that the City and County Building Inspection Departments were becoming vehicles of the urban renewal scheme.

"The inspection people come into your homes with police power intent on furthering urban renewal," he said.

He said the urban renewal plot was also part of county government with Dr. Willis Miller (director of County Planning) the dictator. "Miller is a doctor of geography," he remarked.

"Both county and city planning departments prevented North American (Aviation) from coming here by their dictatorial positions three years ago," he said. "Today, North American employs 20,000 workers."

"We've got ruthless gangsters in government," Montroy told the club. "If we don't get on the ball and let them know we're on to them, we're through."

Program Chairman John Bridger said that Jake Dekema, district engineer for the State Division of Highways will provide the program Friday. He will tell about road projects that will affect Lemon Grove and Spring Valley communities.

New Water Tower To Meet Needs of Grossmont Campus

A second water tower next to the present tower on Katherine pl., soon will rise to change the skyline of Fletcher Hills.

The additional tower is needed for water service to the new Grossmont College and the planned 550 acre residential development north and west of the college site.

"There is no gravity flow advantage as in other utility lines so the water must be pumped and stored under pressure to serve the area," according to Gordon Smith, school planning director for the local junior college district.

The new tower will be larger than the Helix Irrigation District tower now in service. The Santee County Water District will expand its services to enable the development of this large county area.

The tower will be initially oversized for adjacent property.

The cost, now principally borne by college needs, will be reimbursed as the residential development goes forward. Telephone lines are already installed. Gas and electric services are again a shared cost between the college and the general area developers.

Mrs. Johnston sold the cat to Mrs. Joan Van Zele of 8306 Golden Ave., Lemon Grove three years ago for her daughter, Mildred. Mrs. Van Zele sold the cat back to Mrs. Johnston three

Criticism Unwarranted, Premature Says Cozens

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — At least two members of the controversial new Local Agency Formation Commission, the new super agency that will control incorporations and annexations in San Diego County, will be representatives of the unincorporated areas.

Interviews with members of the County Board of Supervisors indicated that Chairman Robert C. Cozens and Supervisor David W. Bird would be appointed as the county's representatives for the new agency which will be formed after September 20.

Both Cozens and Bird represent virtually all of the unincorporated areas in the county. Absolute Power

Bertram McLees, Jr., county counsel, outlined the new commission's jobs last week in a three-page analysis which explained that it will have absolute power over formation of new cities or districts other than school districts and annexations to existing cities and districts other than school districts.

The legislation, Assembly Bill 1662, setting up the new commission will go into effect on September 20.

The legislation was passed to control some of the cities' annexation practices that have resulted in inter-city feuds.

All of the cities of San Diego County will have 60 days in which to meet and choose two representatives on the commission, mayors of the cities will make the appointments from among mayors or councilmen.

The fifth member of the commission will be chosen by the first four commissioners from the public-at-large.

Criticism Unwarranted
Cozens told a County News Service reporter that he thought criticism of the new commission was premature and unwarranted. He said that he would hate to see cities formed in such haste out of some fear that the commission would be against incorporations.

Some advocates of incorporation of new cities have feared that the new commission would automatically act in the interests of the cities with the result that no new incorporations would be approved. Some advocates are pressing incorporation movements to file notices of intention to incorporate before the commission is formed so that its jurisdiction can be avoided.

Supervisors Frank Gibson and Robert C. Dent both agreed that Cozens and Bird, as representatives of unincorporated areas, would be most directly affected by the commission activities and thus should be named to serve.

Desire To Serve

Art Mart To Be Feature During L.G. 'Skool Daze'

Several events will attract visitors to Lemon Grove this week when the town's regular promotion, "Skool Daze," is held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, according to Don Johns, president of the merchants division of the L.G. Chamber of Commerce.

The first will be the hiring of high school students by local firms. The youngsters are expected to work one or more days in the Thursday, Friday and Saturday event. Job placement is being handled through the Youth Placement Bureau of the State Department of Employment at Grossmont High School District offices. A Department of Employment team has surveyed the town to get an estimate of the number of youngsters to be employed.

The youngsters are expected to attract their friends, their relatives and their neighbors to the Lemon Grove business district.

On Saturday, the Foothills Art Association will set up an Art Mart near the Lemon in the plaza from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. More than 30 artists are expected to take part in the show, according to L. T. Shackelford, Foothills president.

Claude Sarvis, chairman of the event for the merchants division, said art pieces will be sold on the spot. Prices will range from 50 cents for charcoal sketches to $500 for oil paintings by recognized artists. Some of the artists will be working on art pieces during the showing and several art instructors are expected to participate.

The L.G. Business Women's League will supply coffee to the artists from a center to be announced the day of the show, according to Mildred Huebsch, a BWL official.

Overlapping all this activity is a good, old-fashioned sale of back-to-school items, according to Pat Hogan, the chairman of the "Skool Daze" event for the merchants division.

Voters To Settle High School Tax, Bond Issue

Following action taken on August 5 to call a bond and tax limitation election on October 29, the Governing Board of the Grossmont Union High School District took final action by adopting the legal resolutions.

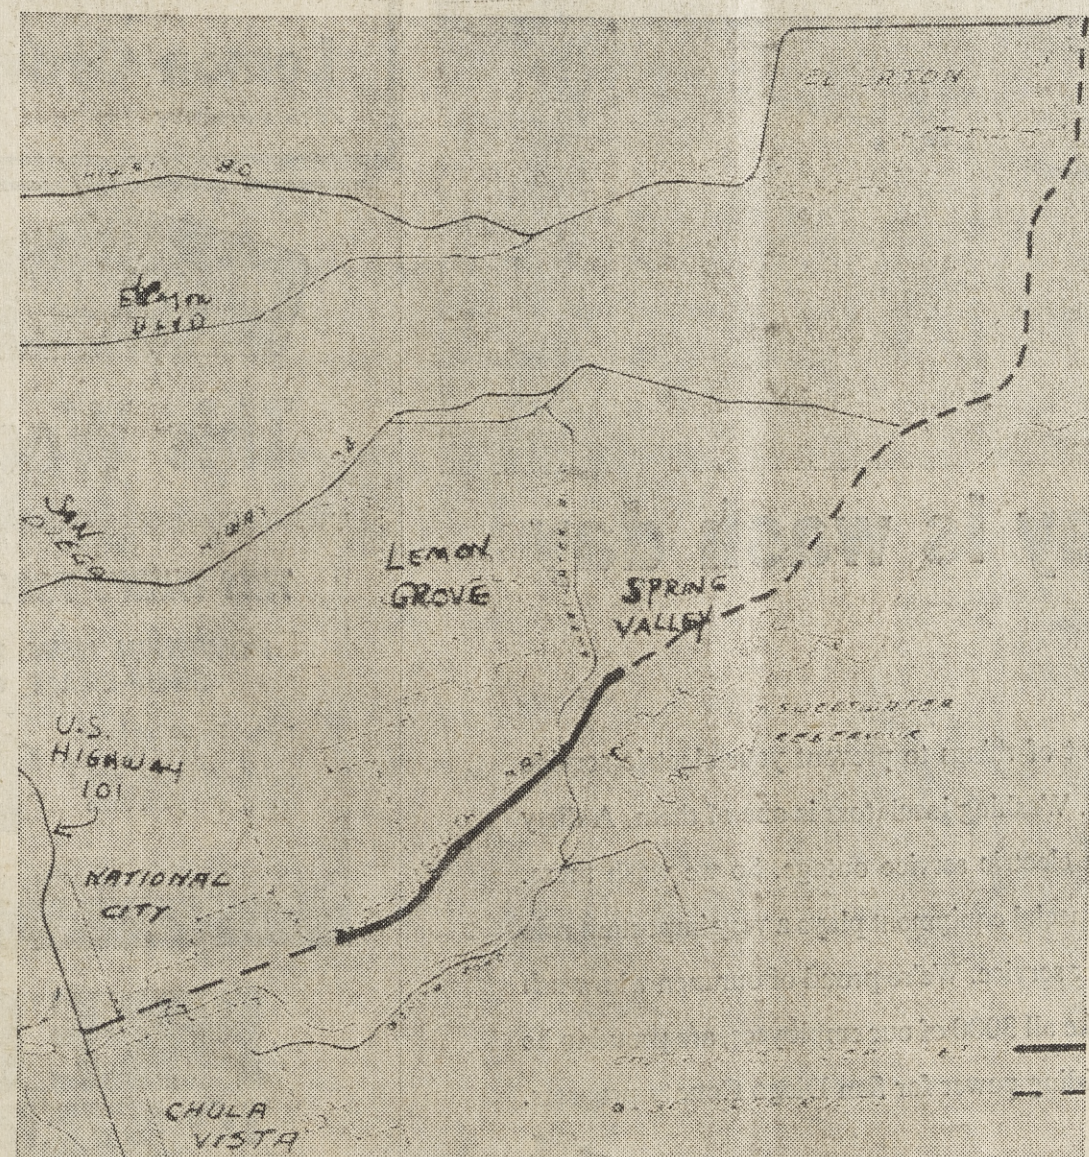

The tax limitation proposal requesting continuation of the $150 operational tax limitation for a period of five years, beginning July 1, 1964. The limitation now set at $1.50 expires June 30, and the rate would drop to 75 cents if the measure was not submitted.

The District would be unable to continue its present program of services if the measure is not approved, because the return to the 75 cents rate would lower revenues by over $1,300,000. The Board emphasized this was not an increase which was being presented.

The bond proposal would request authorization for issuance of $4,400,000 in bonds, the unused bonding capacity of the District under the 5 per cent limitation.

Proceeds of the bond issue would be used to repay State loans plus accrued interest amounting to $2,800,000, and the balance of $1,600,000 applied toward the construction of a high school in Santee. Other reserve bond funds amounting to $400,000 are available to complete the financing of the project.

The high school in Santee is

Grossmont College News

Announcement of a contribution by the La Mesa Lions Club to the Grossmont College Student Loan Fund was made today by Mrs. Jack Colnot, club president.

The money will be used in a revolving fund from which loans are made, on a no-interest basis, to deserving and needy students, according to Dean of Student Affairs John A. Burdick.

"The students deeply appreciate the existence of a loan fund, draw on it each semester quite heavily and have nearly perfect record of repayment," Burdick added.

To Offer Electronics
Lloyd Board, electronics group engineer in charge of the Flight Control Electronics Design Laboratory at General Dynamics-Astronautics, will teach an advanced electronics course in the Grossmont College Evening Division this fall semester.

According to C. Allen Paul, Grossmont College director of technical education, Board was an electronics design engineer prior to joining engineering management.

"Mr. Board's many years of rich experience in the field of electronics insure the depth and quality of the course," Paul said.

Computer Courses
With the addition of a memory cell computer, the Data Processing curriculum at Grossmont College enters the fall semester with a full-fledged program of six courses.

Offered are: Introduction to Business Data Processing; Basic Data Processing Machines; Data Processing Systems; Data Processing Mathematics; and Computer Programming.
At the highest level of study at Grossmont, students will tackle the 1620 IBM computer, a machine available at only six other juncommission. The supervisors may name two of their own number or select from the county clerk, county auditor and controller, county assessor, county surveyor or county registrar of voters.

Cozens said he anticipated many problems facing the new commission that could take a great deal of time.

Incorporation studies are underway in Poway, Lakeside, Lemon Grove and other urban areas.
Annexation proposals of Carlsbad have drawn opposition from neighboring communities.
McLees told the supervisors last week that annexation or incorporation proceedings under the new law can continue only with the favorable ruling of the new commission. If the commission turns an incorporation or annexation proposal down, it may not be reconsidered for at least one year.

Trustees Approve ...
Grossmont Union High School District exceeds 500, most of whom have affiliated with the California Teachers Association, a rival organization.

A letter from Earle W. Wainwright, president of the Grossmont Teachers Association, indicating dissatisfaction and requesting reconsideration of the salary schedule, was presented and discussed. On August 5 the Governing Board had approved a 2-3/4 per cent conditional salary increase which fell short of the association's request amounting to 5.5 per cent.

The letter was critical of the administration and the Board for their failure to support the proposal as presented and for failure to give due consideration to three recommendations which related to the operation of the salary schedule.

The committee had recommended anniversary increments at four year intervals beginning with the eighteenth step, transfer from class one to class two without a general secondary credential, and annual contracts covering the regular, plus the summer school instruction at the option of the individual teacher.

The Board approved study of these proposals by an administration Board, and faculty committee, but rejected by a 3-2 vote reconsideration of the amount of the salary increase.

World champion tree-topper, Danny Sailor, will drop his hat from the top of a 110 foot high tree and beat it to the ground in a demonstration on Forest Products Day, September 9, at the State Fair.

'Deputy Didn't See Me' Claims Grove Youth

"The deputy did not see me holding a can of beer," said William J. Overton, 19, 1639 San Altos pl., L.G., who was arrested August 24 while he was standing beside an auto on Broadway under which was a can of beer.

"The beer was under the car but it did not belong to me," he added.

Deputies said a 12 oz. can of beer was found in back of the front tire of the car after Overton ducked as officers approached. They claimed they had seen Overton holding the can.

"The officers didn't take evidence from any of the other people who were there and they wouldn't listen to anyone's explanation," Overton said.

He said that he was handed the beer by a friend and he put it under the car when officers approached.

Overton pleaded guilty at El Cajon Municipal Court last Friday and was put on two years probation.

Disturbing the Barder
A 41-year-old bartender got into a fight last Saturday when he asked a man and his wife to leave a Lemon Grove bar.

The bartender, Allen P. Ruben of 7555 University ave., said he asked Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. McCleary to leave the establishment because they were becoming increasingly disagreeable.

McCleary allegedly tried to hit Ruben with a bar stool, and did strike him with his fist. Ruben, who had been kicked in the shin, allegedly pushed McCleary away causing his head to break the front door window.

Both McCleary and his wife were arrested by Ruben on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Tree Mispaced
Olina T. Packwood, 17775 El Roy, Monterey Heights, said she found her peach tree from the backyard sitting in her patio when she returned home from work last Friday. A small, cabin-style bedroom window was discovered broken by BB shot.

The trouble might stem from an incident one year ago when a neighbor's cat killed pigeons belonging to juveniles in the neighborhood, she said. The cat deposited the dead pigeons in her yard. She said she found another dead pigeon in her yard just previous to Friday's vandalism.

Window Busted
Frederick Sherman, 10004 Norte Mesa, Casa de Oro, reported to the Sheriff's office that someone threw a rock through his front bedroom window Saturday night. Glass shattered on the bed and floor and did damage to the wall across the room.

Asphalt Assailor
Workmen were busy at work last Wednesday laying asphalt on a portion of the new Bonita freeway at Sweetwater road when a motorcycle rider darted across the intersection narrowly missing the flagman and driving across the freshly laid asphalt.

Arrested
James D. Thulin of 1674 Tarleton, S.V., was arrested August 31 on a charge of drunk and disorderly conduct. Thulin allegedly was driving through Proctor Valley when he drove off the road.

Window Breakers
Glenn R. Rose of 10134 Cristobal, S.V. complained to Sheriff's deputies when someone threw a granite rock through a plate glass front room window of his home Sunday night.

Parakeets Set Free
Fred Woodend, 10421 Del Rio rd., S.V., complained to the Sheriff's office last Wednesday that someone knocked over a large bird cage in the patio of his home and released two pet parakeets. Vandals also threw peaches around the patio and the cage.

Three weeks prior, Woodend said, someone pulled water lilies from a backyard fish pond causing the death of a large gold fish.

The DIMMER VIEW

years ago on its own, ENS reported.

The California State Constitution tackled the question with these words:
"No public money shall ever be appropriated for the support of any sectarian or denominational school, or any school not under the exclusive control of the officers of the public schools; nor shall any sectarian or denominational doctrine be taught, or instruction thereon be permitted, directly or indirectly, in any of the common schools of the State."

When asked for an opinion on the issue in 1955, Governor Pat Brown who was at that time attorney general replied:

"The Bible may not be read in public school classes for religious purposes. It may be used for reference, literary, historical, or other non-religious purposes."

"The Gideon Bible may not be distributed through the public school system."

"Religious prayers may not be made a part of the curriculum of the public schools."

California educators, ENS said, were amazed to read that eminent church leaders of California predict dire effects on children in California schools as a result of the Court's ruling that Bible reading and prayer recitation in public schools are unconstitutional.

A more understanding acceptance of the Court's decision is achieved as parents realize that their schools and teachers already place high priority on perpetuating the moral precepts and spiritual aspirations which have made our Nation and our people strong. Teachers accept this responsibility in California but are required to leave it to the church and the home the responsibility for specific sectarian indoctrination.

It needed to be pointed out for those who lost sight of it that the Supreme Court's latest opinions were paralleled in the State constitution many years ago, and have been long accepted as a standard practice in this State.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Blood Needed
Dear Editor:
I would like to make an appeal for some blood for a deserted mother. Fourteen quarts are needed to replenish the supply already used.

The deserted mother in this case is my daughter. We, as a family, have given blood many, many times to others and we now find ourselves in the unhappy situation of calling on others for help.

You told me once that you would give blood. Will you give some to the Michelle Sayward McIntire fund at the San Diego Blood Bank and ask others to do the same. Or, they may call us at HO 9-5917.

Thank you, Mr. Editor, for your consideration.

Dear Editor:
May I express through your columns many thanks to the wonderful ambulance men of the Spring Valley Fire Department and to Pink Lady Mrs. Kling who rode with me to Grossmont hospital recently when I collapsed.

It was feared at first that it was a heart attack, but I was released from the hospital after it was found to be physical exhaustion due to illness of family members.

14,550 Expected To Enroll at SDSC

More than 14,550 students are expected to be enrolled at San Diego State when classes formally open September 23, President Malcolm A. Love said recently.

This year's expected enrollment represents a gain of more than 800 students over last year's final fall enrollment of 13,696. Based upon past figures, the science-engineering field is expected to attract the largest number of students with education and business administration rating a close second and third.

There will be some 900 persons on the total faculty including librarians, Air Force ROTC instructors, administrators, and full and part-time teaching persons.

Degrees To Increase

The number of available college degrees will be increased this year. While the number of undergraduate degrees stands at 62, the number of graduate degrees moves from 33 to 36.

Three of the four newly approved master's degree programs will begin instruction this September for the first time. They are a one-year master's degree program in astronomy; a one-year master's degree program in German; and a two-year master's degree program in business administration. The fourth, a two-year master's degree program in social work, now in the planning stages, will begin instruction next year, September, 1964.

Studies Abroad

It will be the initial year of the campus abroad program in France, Germany, Sweden, Spain and Formosa as sponsored by the California State Colleges. The program began in late August and includes five San Diego State students who are attending year-long studies in France, Germany, and Spain. The 3½ million dollar business administration - mathematics building, now under construction, is scheduled for completion in July, 1964.

Former Resident Weds at St. Luke's

Miss Antoinette Mizisin of La Mesa was married to John Wayne Conlee, a former Lemon Grove resident, in an afternoon ceremony Saturday.

The Rev. G. H. Hoffman performed the wedding rites at St. Luke's Lutheran Church in La Mesa, and a reception for 250 guests followed at the home of the bride.

The new Mrs. Conlee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew P. Mizisin, 4963 Vista Arroya, La Mesa, wore a full length gown of Irish linen appliqued with crocheted Irish lace. # CD Establishes Disaster Plan in 19 Communities

Each of the 16 Service Centers in the County (unincorporated) Civil Defense Organization is now staffed with four "Heads of Emergency Service Groups" and by a public information representative, according to William B. Marty, county administrative officer for civil defense.

Service Centers are located in Alpine, Borrego, Campo, Fallbrook, Jacumba, Julian, Lemon Grove, Lakeside, Pine Valley, Poway, Rancho Santa Fe, Ramona, Santee, Spring Valley, Valley Center and the combined communities of Encinitas, Solana Beach, Cardiff and Leucadia. Marty said the old service structure of the County Civil Defense in the unincorporated area.

Groups Listed
County civil defense operations plan lists five emergency service groups to be organized in each Service Center. These are medical, emergency welfare, radiological defense, communications and coroner.

The leader in each group is called the "Head" of the group in each Service Center.

In a disaster necessary emergency services in each Service Center would be performed by service groups under their respective heads of service, Marty said.

Medical Service
The medical and nursing professions would provide personnel for the Medical Service Group, trained radiological meter operators would man the Radiological Defense Service Group, and amateur radio operators would work in the Communications Service Group.

The Emergency Welfare Service of the Unified Organization would operate during a war-caused disaster only, Marty said. During a natural disaster the welfare and care of individuals is the responsibility, assign by Congress, of the American National Red Cross, he reported.

Emergency Welfare Service Groups would be staffed by members of churches, service clubs, veterans organizations, farm groups and similar community organizations in each Operation Area.

Mass Care Operation
The county civil defense administrative officer said that many such organizations have already volunteered to form organized cadres or teams within their own group to conduct mass care operations in food, shelter, clothing and registration of persons. They will assist in reuniting families and in rehabilitation work.

An important mission would be provision of management leadership for Congregate Care Centers. The facilities of schools or of welfare and private organizations will be used as such centers. School boards throughout the county have approved the use of their school buildings for this purpose in time of war, he said.

Each Congregate Care Center will be operated by a cadre based upon management leadership in registration, comfort and care, feeding, lodging, clothing, sanitation, logistical support and work organization under the overall direction of a manager and an assistant. Support will be required from more than 60 other persons, Marty said. Such additional help would be recruited from other persons using the Congregate Care Centers.

Book Worm Party Slated
Vincent Toth, principal of Casa de Oro school, will present awards September 6 to approximately 100 children who have participated in the Casa de Oro County Library summer reading program.

The awards party will begin at 2 p.m. in the Casa de Oro library for children who have read 10 or more books as members of the Library Reading Club. About 30 of the youngsters have read 20 or more books. Those who have read 30 books will be given an extra award.

Half-price ride coupons will be available from Lemon Grove merchants. These will be designed by signs in the window advertising half-price tickets are available. A page listing the firms taking part in the show project will be published in this newspaper next week.

Fallout Shelter Course To Begin
A special fallout shelter analysis course for architects and engineers will be offered in San Diego this fall.

William B. Marty, county administrative officer for civil defense, said the course will be presented by the Department of Defense - Office of Civil Defense, in cooperation with the Unified San Diego County Civil Defense Organization, starting September 14.

The class will meet from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. each Saturday until December 21, he said. Sessions will be held in Room 053, Sheriff's Office, in the County Court House at 222 W. "C" St.

There will be no charge for the course, the civil defense administrator said. Persons interested should register with the Unified Civil Defense Center at Gillespie by August 30.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF FILING APPLICATION FOR INCREASES AND DECREASES OF INTRASTATE TELEPHONE RATES
The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company on August 30, 1963, filed with the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California an application, numbered 45728, for specific rate increase authority supplementing Applicant's showing in Case No. 7409, to increase and decrease certain intrastate rates and charges applicable to telephone service furnished within the State of California. In general terms, the proposed increases and decreases are as follows:

Reduction in installation charges on new sets from $10 to $5 and in charges for secretarial lines from $9.75 to $3.
For exchanges located outside the San Francisco-East Bay, Los Angeles and San Diego extended areas, increases and decreases in basic rates resulting from the application of a graduated scale of rates based on the size of exchange. On the average there is an increase of about $2.50 per month per main business telephone and $1 per month per main residence telephone.

In the San Francisco-East Bay, Los Angeles and San Diego extended areas there are changes in basic rates. Increases of $.35 per month apply to each of the following categories of telephone service, except semi-public telephones, and each main residence telephone increases $.15. Present coin semi-public combination monthly rate and daily guarantee, replaced with a fixed monthly rate at about present message business levels. Allowance for two party message rate service reduced from 1.40 to .80 message units. In the San Francisco-East Bay and Los Angeles extended areas 8-party line service is eliminated; also sizeable reductions in charges for 1, 2 and 4 party services are included.

Changes in service connection and move and change charges for business telephones from $15 to $10, and telephone change charges increased from $4 to $5. Introduction of a more accurate method of measuring line miles called "Vertical-Horizontal Measurement Plan". This results in some increases and some decreases for multiple message units and for message for telephone service over certain routes.

Private line teletypewriter machine rate increased to interstate rate levels.
Some PEEX and miscellaneous rates are also increased. These increases are proposed to become effective, upon grant of authority, by the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California and in various counties and municipal corporations therein, including the County of San Diego and the City of Lemon Grove. The State of California, and the counties and municipal corporations therein, which may be interested in the application may obtain a copy thereof for the Applicant upon request directed to:

E. S. Bowers, Assistant Vice President,

Campaign Chairman

UCS Chairman Lists Fund Groups in LG

"The importance of this year's United Community Services Fund campaign in Lemon Grove can best be pointed up by looking at last year's report covering services provided by local agencies of UCS Fund," Jack Koop, Lemon Grove UCS Fund campaign chairman said today.

He listed some of the large United Community Service Fund-supported agencies located in the Lemon Grove, La Mesa, and Spring Valley area, with the type and number of services they provided in 1962:

American National Red Cross, 4,458 persons served; Boy Scouts of America, 2,082 members; Camp Fire Girls, 795 members; Girl Scouts, 2,508 members.

Other agencies not actually located in the district but offering services to the community showed the following figures for 1962:

Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, 1,285 days of care; Legal Aid Society, 390 cases served; Salvation Army Door of Hope, 688 days of care; Visiting Nurse Association, 2,624 visits; YWCA, 797 persons served; and United Cerebral Palsy, services to 325 persons.

"These are but a few of the services that community giving helps make possible through the annual United Community Services Fund campaign each fall," Koop said. "This is where your UCS Fund campaign dollars go back into our community."

Newsman's Book To Tell of Dons Of California

San Diego, Calif.—California's own riotous but little-known "wild west" days, when a new state was born in blood and sweat and tears, are brought to life in a new history, "The Silver Dons," by Richard F. Pourade, which will be published this October.

"The Silver Dons" tells of the faded rancho period of California, from 1830 to 1865, when California was caught in a swirl of change and turmoil.

The book is the third in an already famous series designed to recreate the colorful and exciting history of what is now the country's largest state. Earlier books by Pourade were "The Explorers" and "Time of the Bells."

The book focusses on San Diego, birthplace of California civilization, whose doom by 10,000 Indians was plotted in the period of the dons. Los Angeles was also marked for death.

The Pourade books are commissioned by James S. Copley, chairman of the corporation publishing the Copley Newspapers, as a public service of the United-Tribune Publishing Company, San Diego. The first two books have won national attention both for content and richness of bookmanship and illustration. "Staples" in book stores, they also are found in most major libraries as well as in school collections.

Junior College Designs Furniture at Discount

Educational Facilities Laboratory is sponsoring a project at Grossmont Junior College which will establish the first technical core curriculum of its type on the junior college level in the country.

Educational Facilities Laboratory, an organization supported by Ford Foundation funds, will establish a technical core curriculum which will serve as a base for many specialized courses to be offered at the junior college.

Design Own Furniture
A provision of the EFL project makes it possible to custom-design its own laboratory furniture for its science and technological laboratories at the new junior college site in Fletcher Hills.

Principal designer of the laboratory equipment has been Alvin A. Hanson, instructor of technical illustration and architectural drafting at the college. Tony Colia, an architectural drafting student at Grossmont

New Curriculum To Provide Job Specialization

A new concept in technical education, which will be watched statewide, will soon take physical shape at Grossmont College when teacher faces student in three courses known as the Technical Core Curriculum.

C. Allen Paul, director of vocational education at the college, explained that technical mathematics, technical physical science and technical graphics will provide an appropriate foundation for any number of areas of specialization.

At Grossmont, the trio of courses will lead, for example, to second-year concentration on laboratory technology, instrumentation, industrial electronics or engineering and surveying technology. At the conclusion of the second year, the successful student will have, not only an Associate in Arts degree, but also the technical know-how to step into a specialty job.

Whether such jobs are or will be available in the San Diego area was borne out, Paul noted, by a special Tri-College Study which revealed a list of more than 50 technical aide positions for which the Grossmont College Technical Core Curriculum would prepare students.

Technical math, Paul said, will integrate all the math areas customarily used by technicians, but will eliminate superfluous material.

Technical graphics is divided into various methods of projection; standards and specifications, including electronic drafting; and freehand drawing. There will be coordination between technical math and technical drawing instruction.

Since almost any undertaking involving technology involves principles of physics, Paul said, technicians with this background are better competitors in the employment situation. This is the reason why physical science is really the core in the core curriculum.

S.V. Scout Troop Camps at Matugu

Boy Scout Troop 354 of Spring Valley stayed at Camp Matugu recently.

Campers have taken only personal belongings and sleeping bags. They must set up their own campsite. They are issued raw food which they must prepare themselves. The boys are responsible for keeping their own campsite neat.

Many of the scouts attending the camp are earning merit badges as well as having fun. The day at camp began at 5:30 a.m. and ended at about 8 p.m. Sandwiched between these hours are activities in swimming, archery, canoeing, marksmanship, lifesaving, trailing and tracking, and nature trail studies.

There will be about 600 boys in the camp. Each troop has its own camp out of sight and sound of other troops.

Taking turns at supervising will be parents Alec Fousek, camping chairman; Harold Linsbardt, assistant scout master; Leonard Binder, committee chairman; and Charles Brunkow, William Dyer, and Ralph Traber, commitment.

Classes Start September 10, 7 p.m.
INVESTMENTS AND FINANCIAL PLANNING
Eight week course . . . open to the public . . . third year

College is assisting Hanson, in cooperation with other instructors of science and technical subjects.

Costs Less
Cost of the project to the district will be approximately 30 per cent less than standard laboratory equipment, according to Harold Hughes, superintendent of the college district.

"Furthermore," Hughes said, "instructors will have the unique opportunity on the college's new campus of teaching with the aid of facilities and equipment which they have helped to design and which, therefore, should be particularly suited to their needs."

Builders Interested
Hanson reported that a great deal of interest in the project has been shown by manufacturing firms located in El Cajon, Santee, La Mesa, Spring Valley, and other local communities.

"They seem to be eager to apply their craftsmanship and production capabilities to aid in the development of the college's new campus."

He also pointed out that there are a number of local firms which have modern equipment, use up-to-date production methods, and are qualified to undertake the fabrication and assembling of materials which the project entails.

A resident of Spring Valley, Hanson holds a master's degree in art and design from Stanford University and has 20 years of industrial and architectural design experience in addition to 10 years teaching subjects related to art illustration, architectural design and drafting.
